Chic little villa only minutes to the city

You will absolutely love this gorgeous refurbished villa in the heart of the cappuccino strip of Osborne Park and only minutes to the city, bus right on the corner takes you straight to the rail station.

You will be dazzled by the fabulous 'sea urchin' chandelier in the spacious lounge room which flows out to the secluded front courtyard which is perfect for summer entertaining. If you enjoy cooking then you will love the chef's kitchen being bright, white and modern and a separate dining room. There are two very generous sized bedrooms with built ins in the main. The bathroom will please as this is also white and sparkling. This complex is beautifully maintained and well cared for. For added security you can park right at the front door then walk into the living area and enjoy the benefits of reverse cycle air conditioning. Security screen doors and window as well. and plenty of guest parking. This lovely little home will not disappoint. email kerrie@urbanwa.com.au
